3. NEW BUSINESS

(A) Establish Questionnaire for Community Survey.

Members reviewed sample community survey questions provided by other policing organizations. Members discussed the following:

- what they wanted to accomplish from the survey
- where survey should be made available
- educating community through the local newspaper The Signpost regarding the history of the police services board, operations of the PSB and raising awareness of the community survey
- Police Services Board represents the community's needs and concerns.

Moved by: R. Bain
Seconded by: C. Patterson
(Resolution #PSB-9-2019)

RESOLVED THAT the Secretary/Administrator be requested to post survey questions on the municipality's website, facebook page, and hard copies made available at the municipal office and arena from beginning of May to end of July 2019;

AND THAT The Signpost be contacted to request an interview for the purposes of educating the community about the Police Services Board and informing of the community survey;

AND THAT the survey be emailed to members for approval. Carried.

(b) OPP – Citizens Police Academy – verbal

Mr. Bain presented correspondence provided by the OPP regarding a 6 week program that is being offered by the OPP to give more awareness on what the OPP does. The program is being offered on Wednesday nights beginning in May. A plaque is presented upon the completion of the program. There was some discussion nominating someone to the program.

(c) Name Tags for Police Services Board Members

There was some discussion regarding the ordering of name tags for each Police Services Board Member for use at conferences and zone meetings.

Moved by: R. Bain
Seconded by: C. Patterson
(Resolution #PSB-10-2019)

RESOLVED THAT the Secretary/Administrator be requested to order 6 magnetic name tags for all Police Services Board Members. Carried.
