

Special Occasion Permits – Municipal Notification Form

If you are applying to the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) for a private Special Occasion Permit, please complete this form and email it to the below municipal email addresses. This will satisfy AGCO's requirement to provide written notice of your event to the local Municipal Clerk's Department and Fire Department.

You must provide written notice 30 days before an event where less than 5,000 people are expected to attend (more than 5,000 people require 60-days' notice).

Clerk – clerk@thamescentre.on.ca

Fire – fireadmin@thamescentre.on.ca

Please Note:

- If a tent, marquee, pavilion, or tiered seating will be used, written notice of the event must also be provided to the building department (building@thamescentre.on.ca)
- You are also required to provide separate written notice of the event to the local police and health departments, which are separate organizations from the Municipality of Thames Centre.
