Thorndale Lions Community Centre Ad Hoc Committee Adopts Terms of Reference

At last night's Council meeting the terms of reference for the new Thorndale Lions Community Centre Ad Hoc Committee were adopted.

This committee is tasked with consulting on the design of a possible future expansion for the Community Centre.

In the draft Terms of Reference that were adopted, it was proposed that the composition of the ad hoc committee should comprise of two (2) residents, preferably from Thorndale, one (1) member of the Thorndale & District Lions Club, one (1) member of the Thorndale Agricultural Society and two (2) members of Council.

Information on how to apply to become a committee member will be posted on posters at the Community Centre, and through Municipality social media channels.

Enhancing Protections for Clean Water

At last night's meeting Council approved a report regarding updates to the Thames - Sydenham & Region Drinking Water Source Protection Plan.

These changes include efforts to reduce the use of road salts, limitations on the use of commercial fertilizers within 100 metres of the water source, and strengthening protections against fuel impacting the water source to bring them in line with provincial changes.

A 35-day public consultation period has commenced. The proposed updates will be posted on this website:
